REFOCUS Project Hosts 4th Transnational Meeting in Athens

The REFOCUS project (REthinking and FOstering Competence and skills for sUustainable transport, Shipping, and logistics) successfully held its 4th Transnational Meeting on December 12, 2024, at the American College of Greece's Demos Center, located in Athens, Greece.

The aim of 4th Transnational meeting was to monitor the work progress, communicate details, establish the purpose and objectives of future steps. Specifically, participants engaged in discussions on curriculum development, training materials, event planning, and project management, building on the progress of the consortium's previous work.

The meeting focused on evaluating progress across key work packages, including the assessment of new curricula and training materials (WP3), planning for the upcoming Training School in Antwerp (WP4), and preparations for the 2nd Multiplier Event in Madrid (WP5). Updates on project management (WP1) and future planning were discussed.
