REFOCUS 1st Multiplier Event Successfully Held in Athens

On December 12, 2024, the REFOCUS project (REthinking and FOstering Competence and Skills for sUustainable Transport, Shipping, and Logistics) successfully hosted its first Multiplier Event at the American College of Greece's Demos Center in Athens.

The event began with a welcome address from the American College of Greece, followed by an overview of the REFOCUS project delivered by the University of the Aegean. Key sessions highlighted the project's main outputs, including Communities of Practice, MOOCs, the Education Hub, and Training Schools. Affiliate projects contributed valuable insights through presentations on transformative education for sustainability, bicycle logistics, and digital safety training. Participants engaged in open discussions and networking sessions, fostering dialogue and exploring synergies for future collaboration.
